- 5. Said second parties shall enter said premises for taxation in their and shall well and faithfully pay when due all taxes and assessments, ordinary and extraordinary, that may for any purpose be levied or assessed on said premises. and shall not commit or suffer any other person to commit any waste or damage to said premises or the appurtenances thereof. Should second parties fail to pay any tax or assessment when due, or to keep said buildings insured, first party may pay the same and have the buildings insured, and the amounts thus expended shall be a lien on said premises, be added to the amount then unpaid hereon, be due at once, and bear interest until paid, at percent (12) per annum. eleven
- 6. Said first party further agrees that upon the full performance by second parties of all covenants and agreements by second parties to be performed, and upon the payment to first party of the several sums of money above mentioned, in time and manner and at the place mentioned, that subject to the provisions of Paragraph 3 hereof, first party will execute and deliver to second parties a Quitclaim Deed, and thereby convey to second parties all of first party's title and interest in the premises above described.
- 7. Said second parties shall not assign, nor transfer this contract, nor lease, sublet, sell, convey or encumber said premises or the buildings thereon or any part thereof, or add to or change any buildings thereon without the previous written assent of first party hereto, endorsed hereon.
- 8. It is further mutually agreed that second parties may take possession of said premises on the date hereof and remain thereon as long as they shall perform all the covenants and agreements herein mentioned on their part to be performed, and no longer; provided, that in the event the premises hereinabove described are vacant or unimproved, second parties shall be deemed to be in constructive possession only, which possessory right shall cease and terminate after service of a notice of forfeiture of this contract. Erection of signs by second parties on vacant or unimproved property shall not constitute actual possession by second parties . All buildings, fixtures and other improvements now on, or that shall be placed or made on said premises, shall remain thereon as security for the performance by second parties of this contract. Should default be made by second parties in any of the provisions hereof, first party may immediately thereafter declare this contract void and forfeited and the said buildings, improvements, and all payments made on this contract shall be forfeited to first party as rental for the use of the premises and as stipulated damages for failure to perform this contract, and first party may take immediate possession of said premises without notice and remove second parties and all persons claiming under them therefrom, and first party may, without notice to second parties, declare all money remaining unpaid under this contract forthwith due and payable, notwithstanding that the period hereinbefore limited for the payment of the said balance may not then have expired, and first party may thereafter enforce its rights under this contract in law or in equity, or may after said acceleration take summary proceedings to forfeit the interests of second parties or may enforce said contract in any other manner now or hereafter provided. And it shall be lawful for first party at any time after such default, to sell and convey said premises, or any part thereof, to any other person without becoming liable to refund any part of the money received on this contract, or for any damages on account of such sale. It is expressly understood and agreed that time shall be deemed as of the very essence of this contract and that unless the same shall, in all respects, be complied with by second parties, at the respective times and in the manner above limited and specified, second parties shall lose and be debarred from all rights, remedies, and actions, both at law and in equity, upon or under this contract.

The covenants, conditions and agreements herein contained shall apply to and bind the respective heirs, representatives and successors of the parties hereto.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this instrument to be executed in duplicate the day and year first above written.
